Megan McPherson Joins Resilience Capital Partners as Analyst

Cleveland, Ohio, November 26, 2007 – Resilience Capital Partners (www.resiliencecapital.com), a Cleveland-based private equity firm, has announced the hire of Megan McPherson as a firm analyst. She is responsible for investment analysis, due diligence, financial modeling, and portfolio company oversight.

Prior to joining Resilience Capital Partners, McPherson worked in corporate and investment banking for KeyBanc Capital Markets, with responsibility for advisory and valuation analysis of mergers and acquisitions in such markets as specialty chemicals, plastics, metals, recreational vehicles and more.

McPherson holds a bachelor of business administration from the University of Notre Dame and serves as treasurer for the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Cleveland. She is a resident of Cleveland, Ohio.

Resilience Capital Partners is a private equity firm with offices in Cleveland, Ohio and Detroit, Michigan focused on investing in underperforming and turnaround situations. The firm's investment strategy is to acquire lower middle market companies that have solid fundamental business prospects, but have suffered from a cyclical industry downturn, are under-capitalized, or have less than adequate management resources. Resilience typically acquires companies with revenues of $25 million to $250 million. Since its inception in 2001, Resilience has acquired 14 companies with combined revenues in excess of $750 million.
