Resilience Capital Partners Announces Promotion of Ki Mixon to Principal

Cleveland, OH – October 22, 2008 – Resilience Capital Partners (www.resiliencecapital.com), a leading private equity firm, announces the promotion of Ki Mixon to Principal.

As Principal, Mr. Mixon is responsible for both the sourcing and execution of deals. In addition, Mr. Mixon serves as a Board member for four Resilience portfolio companies: Penda Corporation; ASC Signal Corporation; ChemDesign Products; and Midwest Machining Solutions.

“Ki has proven to be adept at all aspects of the transaction process: due diligence; negotiating; raising of debt financing, as well as working with management on an ongoing basis. We welcome him into the firm’s leadership.” explained Steve Rosen, Co-CEO and Managing Partner.

Mr. Mixon joined Resilience in 2001 after serving in the Corporate Restructuring Group at McDonald Investments (KeyBank). At McDonald he was involved with a variety of assignments including chapter 11 and out-of-court restructurings, and troubled company advisory work on behalf of both the debtors and creditors.

Mr. Mixon earned a MBA from Case Western Reserve University and a bachelor’s degree from Wittenberg University.
