Affinity Apparel Wins Uniform Industry Award for 7th Consecutive Year

Fairborn, Ohio, April 16, 2015 - Affinity Apparel is pleased to announce they have been presented an “Image of the Year” award from the North-American Association of Uniform Manufacturers and Distributors (NAUMD). The awards banquet took place at the 2015 annual conference this week in Orlando, Florida. The “Image of the Year” awards program recognizes achievement in the design, creation and manufacturing of image apparel programs in a number of categories. Affinity Apparel has now won twelve “Image of the Year” awards over the past seven years.

“The entire Affinity team is honored to have received an “Image of the Year” award for the seventh consecutive year,” said Michael DiMino, CEO of Affinity Apparel. “This award recognizes our continuous focus on creating innovative, stylish and functional apparel programs that our customers are proud to wear to work each day.”

Affinity’s “Image of the Year” award winning program was in NAUMD’s Hospital category for the Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital (PPMH) uniform program. This award winning program is highlighted with the new Affinity Apparel exclusive washable suiting line consisting of tailored blazers, vests, pants, skirts and dresses.
